SYNOPSIS This documents my involvement in a breaking and entering. Refer to narrative for further detail.
NARRATIVE On Friday January 6, 2012 at approximately 2248 hours, while on duty, in full uniform, displaying badge #277, and in a fully marked New Mexico State Police unit #192, I was notified by New Mexico State Police Dispatch of a breaking and entering at house 20, on County Road 135, in the Community of Hernandez, County of Rio Arriba, in New Mexico. I arrived on scene at approximately 2302 hours and made contact with the reporting party who was identified as Cory Atencio. Cory stated he was at a basketball game in Pojuaque and when he returned home he noticed a light was on. When he walked in he noticed that his playstation 3 was missing. He walked into his brothers room and saw there was broken glass and trash all over the room. Michelle Jacuez returned home and i had her check for any other itmes that were missing and she advised she was missing jewlery, and also her sons TV was missing. I asked if she had any paperwork on the tv and playstation and she advised she did not. I was able to get fingerprints off off the broken window which will be sent to the labs. When results are retuned a supplemental report will be done. This report is closed.

NARRATIVE

On May 11, 2014 at approximately 0947 hours, I Officer Carlos J. Herrera of the New Mexico State Police Uniform Division, while in full uniform, displaying my badge of office #353, in fully marked patrol unit #112 was dispatched to the El Rito camp ground in El Rito, New Mexico, Rio Arriba County. The call was in reference to some sheep which had been taken and killed illegally from the Ranch owned by Mr. Ronald Garcia.

I arrived at the El Rito camp ground at approximately 1037 hours along with Officer Orlando Sanchez. I spoke with Mr. Garcia about what happened to his sheep. Mr. Garcia said on Sunday May 11, 2014 he found his sheep herd scattered and scared very early in the morning. As Mr. Garcia was continuing to check on his sheep he came across one dead, another which had been wounded by being shot in the neck and possibly another two which had been killed and loaded into a vehicle. Mr. Garcia said he then followed the foot tracks to a nearby camp site and noticed the occupants of the camp site having a BBQ at 0600 in the morning. Mr. Garcia said at that point he suspected the occupants of the camp site were the ones who had taken and killed his sheep. Mr. Garcia then proceeded to the camp site where he said he found sheep meat and other evidence scattered about the camp site. Mr. Garcia said he went to speak with the campers, but they did not come out and talk to him about the situation. At that point, Mr. Garcia proceeded to the town of El Rito to call New Mexico State Police for assistance.

After speaking with Mr. Garcia, Officer Sanchez and I followed Mr. Garcia to the campsite where the suspects may be. Officer Sanchez and I began to identify all persons occupying the campsite immediately. The occupants were identified as Amanda Villareal, Natasha Castillo-Fernandez, Leonard Bustos, Eric Glock and Joseph Glock. While identifying these individuals, Mr. Garcia, Officer Sanchez and I could see blood on the tail gate of Amanda's white GMC truck along with fresh animal meat in a cooler. There was also blood on a spare tire which was leaning against a tree. I asked Joseph and Eric where this meat came from and who killed the sheep. Both Eric and Joseph said they were asleep and did not know who did it. They also stated some other campers identified as Cory Atencio and Josh Lovato are the ones who killed the sheep, but they had left the campsite prior to my arrival. While I was continuing to speak with Eric and Joseph, Officer Sanchez and Mr. Garcia found the head of a sheep on the other side of the river along with other discarded parts of the sheep.

After interviewing Amanda, Natasha, Leonard, Eric and Joseph for approximately one hour, they all stated the persons responsible for taking and killing the sheep were Cory and Josh. Officer Sanchez and I then asked if we could search the vehicles located on the campsite for any weapons or other evidence. The vehicles owners gave Officer Sanchez and I permission to search the vehicles and no weapons or other evidence was found. I advised everyone at the campsite, if they do not cooperate with law enforcement in tracking down Cory and Josh I will have everyone charged with felony counts for killing and stealing livestock. All individuals agreed to help me get in contact with Cory and Josh. Prior to Officer Sanchez and I leaving the campsite we advised Amanda, Natasha, Leonard, Eric and Joseph to pack up and leave the camp ground immediately and not to return. They all left the campsite immediately.

At approximately 1500 hours, I received a call at the New Mexico State Police Office from Leonard Bustos and Cory Atencio. Both Leonard and Cory admitted to shooting three sheep with a .22 rifle. Cory and Leonard also said Josh Lovato was with them the entire time and he also shot at the sheep. I asked Cory how many sheep were shot and killed. Cory said he only knows of three sheep which were shot. One sheep was wounded and would later die, and two more were killed. Cory said they only took one of the dead sheep back to the campsite in the back of Josh's silver Toyota Tacoma. As of 1045 hours on May 12, 2014 I have only received admissions of guilt from Leonard and Cory. I have tried to contact Josh but have been unsuccessful up to this point.

On May 12th, 2014 at approximately 1430 hours, I was contacted by Josh and asked if he could come and speak with me at the NMSP Office. At approximately 1500 hours Josh arrived at the office to give me his side of the story. Prior to interviewing Josh, I read and explained to him his Miranda Rights and Josh agreed to speak with me without a lawyer present. Josh explained to me, Cory, Leonard and himself were drinking at the campsite talking about hunting. Josh said as they were talking about hunting, they got the idea to go and shoot some sheep at a nearby ranch. Josh said he did not shoot at the sheep, only Cory and Leonard did. Josh only drove his red truck up and down the road waiting for Cory and Leonard to return. Josh did say they did kill one sheep and later gutted it and consumed it. Up to this point in the investigation, I have admissions from all the suspects Leonard, Cory and Joshua. Leonard, Cory and Joshua have been advised of all their charges that will be sent up to the Rio Arriba County District Attorney for evaluation.

On May 16, 2014 at approximately 1000 hours, I conducted an interview with Mr. Garcia, Leonard Bustos, Cory Atenico and Joshua Lovato. The interview took place at the New Mexico State Police office in Espanola, New Mexico. Prior to conducting the interview I read Leonard, Cory and Joshua their Miranda Rights. Leonard, Cory and Joshua all said they understood their Miranda Rights and they did wish to speak with Mr. Garcia and I without an attorney present. During the interview, Leonard, Cory and Joshua all admitted to Mr. Garcia and I they had all been talking about killing an animal the morning of May 10th, 2014. Leonard, Cory and Joshua said they jumped into Joshua's red Toyota Tacoma and drove up the dirt road at the El Rito, Camp ground. As they were driving up the road they said they saw the reflection of an animal's eyes behind the fence and noticed a few sheep about 15-20 yards from the fence line. They then stopped the vehicle and Leonard said he grabbed a .22 caliber rifle and shot at two sheep but did not know if he had hit any. Leonard said he then handed the rifle to Cory who took another two shots at the sheep, but according to Cory's statement he also did not know if he had hit any of the sheep with his shots. Finally Joshua grabbed a .12 gauge shotgun and fired at one of the sheep which wounded it. Joshua then walked up to the wounded sheep and fired once more which killed the sheep. Leonard, Cory and Joshua all admitted to dragging the dead sheep to Joshua's truck and placing it in the bed of the pickup. They then all drove to the campsite in El Rito, skinned the sheep, cooked it and consumed it.

After receiving and recording all the statements from Leonard, Cory and Joshua I let Mr. Garcia speak with them. Mr. Garcia advised the boys they must pay $7,560 in restitution between the three of them and write an apology letter to the Rio Grande Sun newspaper. The boys all agreed to Mr. Garcia's stipulations. I again advised Leonard, Cory and Joshua this case is not over and the report will still be sent to the District Attorney for evaluation. Mr. Garcia did receive a check from Cory's grandmother Bernice Atencio in the amount of $2,520 which was his part of the restitution. I will be attaching a copy of that check with this report.

It should also be noted that Leonard, Cory and Joshua all wrote statements and apology letters to Mr. Garcia and they to will be submitted with this report.

This case is closed, if any further information becomes available pertaining to this case it will be submitted through a supplemental report.

Case 14-111836

On Sunday May 11th 2014, after working from 02:00 to 04:00 on my sheep at my ranch 6 miles North of 02:00 (community) the time was 6:00 am approx. As I went by the 02:00 (community) at 6:30 or so I noticed a group of (sheep) with a large juv and the smell of cooking meat in the air. I also noticed a grey or white vehicle being loaded as I leaving I proceed to my ranch where I found my sheep head scattered and scared, it took approx 2 hrs to round them up; here I noticed a wounded lambing sheep and then another also possible wounded. I returned to the sheep corral where they had slept. Here I found a dead sheep with a bullet hole in the neck; I also found drag lines where Juan footprints were dragging something (sheep) bleeding to the road where it was loaded. I found additional drag marks going thru a wire gate to the road. I then went to 02:00 to seek the assistance of law enforcement. On the way to 02:00 I drove by the campsite I had seen at 6:30 that morning as I got close I noticed new meat on the ground and the smell of sheep meat cooking in the air. I called out to the campsite, no answer. I got out of my vehicle and no one was present. Here I noticed meat in front on the tail gate of a white GMC, also on the tailgate was a lot of blood and tissue. I left and called for help.

On Saturday May 10th four of my friends and I arrived in El Rito around 12 a.m. to camp for the weekend. On Saturday afternoon, Joshua Lovato and Cory Atencio stopped to talk to us at the camp site on their way back to Espanola and we made plans for them to come back and camp with us later on that night. They arrived Sunday morning at around 1 a.m. and we were just hanging out around the fire drinking some beers and taking shots when the idea of killing an animal randomly came to conversation and without even thinking about it Josh, Cory and I left in Josh's truck. While driving up the mountain, the sheep were the first animals we saw so we stopped.

When we got down we jumped the fence and walked to where the sheep were. Cory shot twice with a .22 caliber and we didn't know if hit anything. He then passed me the gun and I also shot twice and we weren't sure if I hit anything either. That was when Josh said that he "was disappointed in us" so he shot twice with a shot gun and confirmed the kill.

We loaded the sheep on the back of the truck and then brought it back to camp. Josh gutted the sheep and then I helped him put it on the tree and skin it. As the sun started to come up, Josh and I cut off a hind leg to take with us and then went to dispose of the body and cooked the blackstrap of the sheep. When we got back we started cleaning up a little and then I went to sleep in the back of Amanda's truck. When we were woken up by the police at around 10:30 a.m. we found out that Josh and Cory had left around 9 a.m. leaving all of their stuff behind.

Mr. Garcia I am greatly sorry for what I've done. These past few days have honestly been hell for me. I haven't been able to sleep, eat, or function, I know I can't take back what I did and I know you won't ever forgive me fully for my actions. I've honestly learned my lesson and a lot more! I just want to let you know that with what ever you decide to do I respect you and your decision fully. I as a young man am not writing this letter to make the situation any easier or worse for myself but to just ask for your forgiveness and to some day have a serious talk about the ranch life because it seems like a good way to live. Again Mr. Garcia I'm truly sorry and I'm willing to face the consequences. Before all this my life was just barely getting started. I just recently got a job offer for UPS and was about to join the IEC to get my electrician license this summer. I can't believe that I threw all of that away because of one stupid idea. I have learned the value of life and how precious it really is because if your not careful it could be taken away at anytime.

As a side note thank you Mr. Garcia for teaching me one of the biggest lessons I've ever had to endure in my life.

Sincerely,

Leonard J. Bustos

Dear Mr. Garcia,

On the behalf of myself and my irresponsible choice I am truly sorry for the action I have committed. I have learned a valuable lesson and hope we can come to a resolution to mend the damage I have caused to your lively livestock. I hope you can find it within yourself to forgive me and allow me to repay you for your losses.

Sincerely,

Joshua Lovato

Sunday May 11, 2014 Josh Lovato and I went to El Rito to go check on his gaming camera. Josh Lovato and his family have a cabin near Vallecitos. On our way down from the mountains, we then stopped at Lj's campsite. At this point, we stood around the campfire talking about how their camping trip has been. I told Josh "dude lets go I want to go eat I am starving." We finally left the campsite, and we were on our way home. We got to Josh Lovato's house and packed blankets, pillows, and sweaters. After we packed our stuff, we then made sandwiches. We then left Josh Lovato's house and went to go put gas in his truck. It was about 12:00 a.m. when we left Espanola, and we arrived at El Rito campgrounds approximately 1:00 a.m. We then gathered around the campfire, and began to drink beer and aslo consume shots of Fireball. Then the idea of killing an animal just was brought into our conversation. We then left the campsite. While driving up the mountain the sheep were the first animals we saw. At this moment we then stopped, I then pulled out my .22 and we all got off the vehicle. We then jumped the fence and I Cory Atencio took the first two shots at the sheep not knowing if I hit any or not. Then, I passed the .22 to Leonard Bustos and he took an additional two shots at the sheep not knowing if he hit any either. However, Josh Lovato said, "You guys are disappointments." Josh Lovato then took an additional two shots with the shotgun. Josh Lovato then said, "Help me drag it to the truck." We took it back to the campsite and that is when Josh Lovato begins to gut the animal. After Josh Lovato gutted the animal Leonard Bustos and Josh Lovato hung it from the tree and began to skin the sheep. I fell asleep in the back seat of the truck and I woke up when Josh Lovato and Leonard Bustos were driving to dispose of it. I woke up a second time and I saw Josh Lovato and Leonard Bustos cooking food. I went back to sleep, and the sunrise woke me up and I told Josh Lovato "Its Mother's Day I got to go home and spend it with my mom." We then left the El Rito Campgrounds around 9:00 a.m. In addition, before we got on the highway, Josh Lovato said, "I think I am still drunk can you drive us home." I then said "Yeah I didn't drink that much." Therefore, I drove Josh Lovato's truck back home.

Subject: Sincere Apology

Ronald Garcia I cannot emphasize enough how sorry I am for participating in such an irrational criminal act. I know what I did was wrong and disrespectful to you, your family, and livestock, but most of all embarrassing and humiliating on myself. I was not raised like this; I grew up with morals, values, and respect. I have plans for my future; currently I am attending Northern New Mexico College and I earned my associates degree in Criminal Justice. I want to further my education, so therefore I will be attending University Of New Mexico in the fall of 2014 working towards earning my bachelors in Criminal Justice. I plan to get on board with a well-respected police department.

I am not a bad kid I carry a 3.1 GPA at Northern New Mexico College. A single parent who was very heavy on respect, discipline, and working for what you want raised me. My grandfather has a farm and I was raised helping him irrigate, plant gardens, and feed and water the animals in the mornings and evenings. I can imagine how hard and demanding it is for a rancher like yourself to have a loss of your livestock, especially how hard you work to maintain your land, and for us irresponsible young men to trespass on your land and kill two of your sheep along with injuring others.

I admit what I did was wrong and I take full responsibility for my actions.

Honestly, I just was caught up with the wrong people because that is honestly not the type of man I am. I cut off all communication with these individuals and the friendship we had because they brought out the worst in me. I would never of normally of done this I have more common sense, respect, dignity, and pride for myself. I did not only embarrass and humiliate myself but I disrespected and am a major disappointment to my family because they raised me better than this. I will do anything Ronald for you, your family, and livestock. I cannot afford this to be on my record at such a young age. I have the rest of my life ahead of me, and I have the ambition to get my bachelor's degree, and to be someone and succeed in life. I beg you to please work out a deal with me. My life, my future, and my career are at your mercy. I promise I will never show my face in El Rito for the rest of my life. We will pay you whatever money amount you need to replace your loss of livestock. I will be more than willing to help you on your ranch this summer with whatever you may need help doing. I am sincerely sorry from the bottom of my heart Ronald please let me make this right I beg you for forgiveness. I will never do anything like this ever again. I've realized with hanging around the wrong crowd your future, hopes, and dreams of ever wanting to accomplish what you are set out to do can all be lost in a blink of an eye with a stupid decision you chose to do trying to be "cool" with your friends. I hope to god and pray that you can please please not press charges on me. I will give you any amount of money that you need from me and in addition to paying you, the money you need I will work on your ranch or work for you helping or doing anything you may need around the ranch or yard work. If you never want me to set foot in El Rito I promise you I give you my word that you'll never see me in your town for the rest of my life. Again, Ronald I am truly sincerely sorry for my irresponsible actions and the grief, stress, and loss I caused you and your family. I am willing to give you anything you ask for or may need from me. Please give me the chance to show you this is not the person I truly am. If you are willing to work out a deal with me this is my number feel free to contact me at any time night or day. I want to make this right between you and me. I do not want to miss my future because of a stupid honest mistake I did for being with the wrong crowd. Please Ronald I beg you please work a deal with me. I've learned my lesson and I stopped talking to these boys after this incident my friendship with them has ended. I need to surround myself with positive people and people that have the ambition to do something with their life. I hope you can dig deep in your heart and forgive me for my careless actions I took part in. This is not the type of person I am. I was not raised like this. Ronald Garcia I'm sincerely sorry from the bottom of my heart. God bless you and your family please I pray to god you contact me and we can work something out three felonies on my record will ruin my life completely, and I am barley 20 years old. Please Please Ronald I will give you anything you desire, money is not an issue ill pay you whatever x amount of money you need. In addition to paying you I will work on your ranch repair fences, irrigate, plant, do yard work at your house, ANYTHING you need I promise to keep my word I will be there.
